Startup Weekend End of Day Saturday

Wow, what a day! Startup Weekend Bellingham has been a spectacular adventure.

Please Help Me Out... by taking a look at the site, and if you are interested in 3d printing please register on the site. Don't worry we won't spam you.

The website we have built today is http://3dconnect.co

First off, the business pitch.

Build a website business to connect people with 3d printers with those people who want to print 3d objects, but don't have a printer.

The team:

I am one of six on a team. Here is the link to the team page: http://3dconnect.co/3dconnect/

Revenue Opportunity:

Make a commission by connecting designers with people who have printers available.

Sell printing supplies online.
