Sessions Accepted for DevTeach Vancouver BC

Today I learned that two of the sessions that I proposed for Vancouver DevTeach were accepted.

This event taking place on December 2nd to 4th 2013 at the Vancouver Sheraton Wall Center Hotel. It will have 3 full days of main conference (Dec. 2-4). Don't miss this Vancouver DevCon!

The first session:

And the second:

This should be fun. I always enjoy spending time with the #SQLFamily to the North. Where I live, even though it is in the United States, Vancouver is the closest large city at only 44 miles from home, where Seattle is 97 miles form home for me.
