

Startup Weekend End of Day Saturday

Wow, what a day! Startup Weekend Bellingham has been a spectacular adventure.

Please Help Me Out... by taking a look at the site, and if you are interested in 3d printing please register on the site. Don't worry we won't spam you.

The website we have built today is <http://3dconnect.co>

First off, the business pitch.

Build a website business to connect people with 3d printers with those people who want to print 3d objects, but don't have a printer.

The team:

I am one of six on a team. Here is the link to the team page: <http://3dconnect.co/3dconnect/>

Revenue Opportunity:

Make a commission by connecting designers with people who have printers available.

Sell printing supplies online.

Here is a link to the site.
